Summary of Report: (objective, highlights and snapshots like images should be included)

The Department of Training & Placement successfully organized a Career Counselling Session by Mr. Bhupender Aujla, Senior Manager – Strategic Alliances, IDP (North & East Zone) on 03 September 2026 for final-year students of B.Sc. (MLS/MRIT/AOTT).

During the session, Mr. Bhupender Aujla provided valuable guidance and insights on various aspects of academic and professional development. The key topics covered during the session included:

- ROI of Education: Aligning Programs with Industry Demands
- Cultural Adaptation in Global Academic Settings
- The Hybrid Workforce: Human-AI Collaboration
- The Bridge Strategy: Mapping Academics to Career Goals
- Designing a Cohesive Professional Identity
- Personal Branding for Early-Career Professionals

The session helped students understand the changing demands of the global education and employment landscape and provided them with practical guidance on aligning their academic journey with their career aspirations. The interaction also encouraged students to develop a strong professional identity and prepare themselves for emerging opportunities in the global workforce.
